

STEWART CREEK RANCH

GUNNISON, COLORADO

168± ACRES | $895,000

The Cimarron Valley is one of the most scenic settings in all of Colorado. Towering mountain peaks, mountain streams, and alpine ponds all combine to complete this landscape of high country elegance.

Located in the heart of this serenity is a 168 acre mountain ranch. Adjacent to the national forest, this alpine setting is heavily treed at an elevation ranging from 8,400' to 9,000'. Stewart Creek bisects the ranch, providing seasonal water along with two trout filled ponds. It's amazing that such a property exists just 32 miles southeast of Montrose, Colorado with year round access, adjoining public lands and electricity on site. This truly is a mountain jewel.

LOCALE

Gunnison County (pop. 15,324), home to Paonia State Park and the Gunnison National Forest, is named in honor of United States Army officer John W. Gunnison, who surveyed land in 1853 as a captain in the Army Topographical Engineers. The county seat belongs to Gunnison, which contributes the largest populous to the county.

The San Juan Mountains are famous for their rugged peaks, steep canyons, and deep river valleys. Southwestern Colorado is also home to thirteen peaks above 14,000 feet, known by climbers as “Fourteeners.” This region also claims the headwaters of the famous Rio Grande, San Miguel, and Dolores rivers.

Much of Colorado’s mining history was written here with famous gold strikes at the Idarado, Camp Bird, and Smuggler Union mines. The 19th century mining towns of Telluride, Ouray, Durango, and Silverton have been reborn as vibrant centers for art, music, and tourism. Winter sports, including skiing at Telluride and ice-climbing in Ouray, are major engines for the local economy.

AREA ATTRACTIONS

The City of Gunnison is the county seat of Gunnison County, Colorado. As of the 2010 census, the city had a population of 5,854. It was named in honor of John W. Gunnison, a United States Army officer and explorer who surveyed for the transcontinental railroad in 1853. Gunnison saw its first population increase in the 1870s, due to the mining surge throughout the state. The railroad arrived soon after in 1880 to appreciative miners, ranchers, and farmers. Gunnison is located off of U.S. Highway 50 near the Blue Mesa Reservoir, which is the largest lake in the state. Gunnison is home to the liberal arts Western State Colorado University that was founded on April 16, 1901. Along with being a very beautiful area the Gunnison River Basin is know for being one of the coldest places in America.

Montrose, a county seat, has been a hub for agriculture and commerce since the early 20th century and the completion of the Gunnison Tunnel, which brought water for irrigation to the Uncompahgre Valley. Humans have lived here, though, for more than 3,000 years as evidenced by the petroglyphs at the Shavano Valley Rock Art Site. Today, Montrose is a regional center for health care, retail, and entertainment.

Crested Butte is a prominent mountain summit and a beautiful ski area in the West Elk Mountain range of the Rocky Mountains. The 12,168-foot peak is located in Gunnison National Forest, 2 miles northeast of the Town of Crested Butte in Gunnison County. Ski lifts and runs of the Crested Butte Mountain Resort occupy the north side of the mountain. The annual snowfall average is 198.4 inches with the average temperature being only 34.7 °F.

AREA ATTRACTIONS

The Black Canyon of the Gunnison near Montrose is, as the National Park Service notes, “big enough to be overwhelming and still intimate enough to feel the pulse of time.” With its steep cliffs and rock spires, the canyon tests hikers while fishermen, boaters, and kayakers find challenges on the river.

The “Gateway to the San Juans,” Ridgway supports an eclectic arts scene. True Grit, starring John Wayne, and How the West was Won were filmed in and around this historic mining town and former railroad stop.

Historic and happening, Telluride is home to superb winter skiing, a thriving cultural arts scene, world-class restaurants, and more than a few artists, writers, and actors. A former mining town named after tellurium, a metalloid element never actually found here, Telluride is today at the center of southwestern Colorado’s cultural and winter sports scene. A free gondola connects Telluride to Mountain Village at the base of the ski area.

LONE EAGLE LAND BROKERAGE, INC.

Oftentimes it is hard to describe in words the beauty of Western Colorado and all that it offers. From the rugged snow-capped peaks of the Rocky Mountains, to the lush green farms that cover the valley floor, it's easy to say there is nowhere else like it on earth. It's truly a place of un-surpassing beauty and life.

For the past 24 years we have had the honor of helping our clients become a part of this incredible place we call home. Lone Eagle Land Brokerage was established with a very simple philosophy: we would be a Real Estate Company that focuses on our clients' buying and selling needs of ranch and recreational properties in Western Colorado and that we would provide them with the best possible information, service and experience the ranch market has ever seen. Our clients will testify ... we have reached our goal! We look forward to earning your business.

While it took some time to get established, this unique Colorado ranch real estate office has been responsible for some of the largest land transactions in the region. Our closed sales now rival a half billion dollars. A lot of brokers claim to be ranch specialists - our numbers prove we are the ranch specialists.

AN ALLIANCE OF THE COUNTRY'S BEST BROKERAGES

FARM & RANCH CATEGORIES

American Farm & Ranch and their Member Brokers have created a system for categorizing rural real estate. This system is designed to help buyers find exactly what they are looking for using six simple categories. The categories are EQUESTRIAN, RECREATION, TIMBER, SPORT, RANCH and FARM. Some properties may only fit into one category whereas others may fit into a few or even all the categories.

The colored blocks below represent the six different categories.

STEWART CREEK RANCH

The Stewart Creek Ranch falls mainly into the following four categories, RECREATION, TIMBER, SPORT and RANCH.
